POLICE PROCEEDINGS—Wednesday, April 15.

There was very little business in the Police Court this morning. Visitors were few. The dock was not as well filled as usual.

John Thompson, whose case was continued from Monday, and who was charged with stealing a watch from a man on the levee, was presented. The man failed to appear. He was released from the charge and presented as a supported felon. He is a paroled rebel prisoner, and was sent to Col. Moore, the Provost Marshal. He said "he had a brother in the Federal army, and he didn't want to fight against him any more."

Ans Emerson was bailed out of the workhouse.

Cal Price stood out a peace-warrant against Tilly and Lizzie Henderson and George Roberts. These parties all live in the same house, and "cut up shivers." One half is afraid of the other. They were recommended to the Grand Jury.

Thus ended the business in the Police Court this morning.

ARREST OF EDWARD WILDER, Esq.—Our

readers, doubtless, remember that Mr. E. J.
Wilder, an old citizen of this city, was released at Nashville on Monday and his bonds taken. He came to this city, and was arrested yesterday by order of Colonel Mundy, in accordance with the recent order issued by General Burnside, that all sympathizers with the rebellion shall be sent below the lines.
We learn that the authorities intend rigidly enforcing this order.

Two or three of the forty thieves were arrested on Market street, after Second, Tuesday night. They stole three or four bolts of calico, and $4 in money from a dry-goods store. These young rascals are nightly committing depredations of this kind in the city, and we hope the police will succeed in breaking up this band of young thieves.

Not so—There was a rumor prevalent yesterday that the City Attorney, Mr. W. G.
Reesor, was arrested Tuesday by the military authorities and put in the military prison. This is not so. He was in the Police Court yesterday morning, attending to his business as usual, and is not likely to be put in any prison.
He is a Union man.

ROBERT—Lieut. Clark, of the Eleventh

Kentucky cavalry, was robbed yesterday morning of about $5,000 in greenbacks, Tennessee and Southern money. It was in his coat, which was hanging in a recruiting office, on the corner of Floyd and Main streets.
The thief is supposed to be a German from Indiana.

The owner of the fine horse that was killed on Fourth street, a few days ago, has been subpoenaed to appear by a number of citizens, who have almost contributed enough money to purchase another horse for him. He is a cripple, and the loss of the horse was a serious one to him.

There is very often complaint made of the conduct of young men who congregate on the corner of Fourth and Green streets at midnight, whooping and shouting, and thus to the annoyance of the citizens in that vicinity.
This is a nuisance that ought to be stopped by the police.

We learn that there are cases of small-pox existing among some negroes on Green street, near Brook. This is a nuisance, and may possibly prove an epidemic in the neighborhood. Can these cases not be removed to the pesthouse, or to some hospital, by the city authorities?

Mason Jones, Esq., an Irish gentleman, who is famous as an actor and lecturer, has reached our city en route to Murfreesboro.
We understand that he is urgently solicited to deliver as address to our citizens if a suitable hall can be obtained.

The Nashville train came in on time last evening without meeting with any hindrance by guerrillas along the line. Everything was quiet so far as heard from at points along the route.

Captain James M. Thurman, late Quartermaster of the Twenty-second Kentucky regiment, has returned to his home in Corvington, having resigned his position in the army on account of ill health.

The fire yesterday morning was caused by the partial burning of a shed, attached to Mr. Hatfield's cotton factory, on the corner of Thirteenth street and Portland avenue. Damage slight.

Dick Morgan, the notorious horse-thief, has been convicted and sentenced to the penitentiary for four years. He arrived at Frankfort, from Covington, yesterday.

High School Lecture—Professor Hallman will deliver a lecture this evening in the Male High School building. Subject—Telegraph.

We learn that several persons have been knocked down and robbed in the lower part of the city during the past few nights by soldiers.

Quite a number of deserters and prisoners were brought down on the train from Lexington last evening. The train was crowded.

Jo. Short, the clever news agent on the Lexington Railroad, has our thanks for his attention to this office.

About one hundred sick and wounded soldiers arrived on the train from Nashville last evening.

There will be a meeting of both Boards of the City Council this evening.

OLD FOLKS.—This most popular troupe gave another of their "old-time" entertainments last evening to one of the most fashionable audiences the city could produce, and they fully appreciated "ye songs of yesteryear," while they were more than pleased with the beautiful song of "Annie Laurie," which never escaped woman's lips with more sweetness and melody than it did from the lips of Miss Paige.

"Coming Thru' the Rye" was divine in itself.

It does not often happen that a man who likes to hear pretty singing by a pretty girl can be so well as he can now in Miss Emilie Paige. We go to hear singers, some for one, some for another, and others for no reason at all. We often find ourselves, after these concerts or entertainments, criticizing first one thing and then another, until we come to the conclusion there was really not much in it. Some singers have fine voices without due training; some have fair voices very much cultivated, and so ambitions of the cultivation that they keep the hearers annoyed and worried through the whole performance. Others, again, have neither so much voice nor cultivation, but pretty faces, fine appearance, and an air of doing everything to captivate the audience.

We have rarely seen any one combining more beautifully so many of the requisite graces as Emilie Paige. Her voice enchants her hearers, her cultivation is sufficient to do well what she undertakes, and her manner and beauty are both as bewitching that we are bound to exclaim, "how sweet and beautiful."

So enraptured does the audience become, (though there is much beautiful singing besides hers, especially by her sister), that a feeling of disappointment is plainly visible when she so modestly assumes her seat.

We advise those who are fond of first-class vocal music, by all means not to miss this opportunity. We are sure those who put it off till the last night will be sorry they had not gone before, as they have missed an opportunity for so much pleasure. We suggest that a complimentary benefit be given Miss Emilie tomorrow night, and hope she will accede to the wishes of her many admirers.

WOOD'S THEATRE.—The numerous admirers of Miss Dora Shaw can have but two more opportunities after to-night of witnessing her beautiful impersonations as she positively closes her engagement on Saturday, the popular artist, Mr. and Mrs. F. B.

Conway, appearing on the following Monday.
To-night the fair Dora appears as "Carmilla," one of her greatest delineations, and in which character it is said she excels every other actress who has attempted it. Mr. J. W. Albany, from the Philadelphia theatre, who has the reputation of being a young actor of great excellence, makes his first appearance here, performing "Armand Duval"—the rest of the characters by the excellent stock company. A full house may be reasonably looked for.

Sam Sharp's Minstrels, who are to appear at Masonic Temple, have been doing a big business in Indianapolis. The Journal of that city, of April 8th, says of them:

Another big house crowded into Masonic Hall last evening to "laugh and grow fat" over the funny performances of Sharp's Minstrels. The instrumental music and chorus singing of this band is most excellent. The fancy and other dances are executed in the most approved style. The ballets by Master Archie are very cleverly sung, while Sam Sharp's comical scenes and the negro exhibitions of the comedians of the company are inimitable. These musical comedians will appear again this evening, and to morrow night they will conclude their performance here.

ANOTHER TRUMPET AFFAIR.—The Washington correspondent of the Cincinnati Gazette says that it has been finally decided to release the British steamer Peterhoff, captured on a charge of attempting to run the blockade. It appears that she was in the British channel of the West Indies. Peterhoff was determined to release the Peterhoff even if not exactly compelled to do so under the laws of nations, and is an offset, threaten England with war if any more steamers are built for the rebels. It is time he was giving England a little plain talk.

ADAM ISAACS MENKEN.—It would almost be useless for us to urge any one to go and witness the extraordinary performances of this wonderful actor, or to even comment on his style of playing in the play of Mazzapa, for the large audiences that nightly crowd the theatre is sufficient proof that she is a wonderful woman, and never fails to excite the admiration and applause of all who see her. To-night Mazzapa will be repeated, and we advise all who are desirous of seeing her to go early for the house will be crowded.

The following is a list of Inquests held Yesterday, in Cincinnati, the following awards of bids for army supplies were made by Capt. DuBarry:

10,000 lbs rice, Jas. A. Frazer, at 9c.
100,000 lbs rice, Brown, Stout & Butler at 86c.
20,000 lbs green coffee, Minor & Andrews, at 23c.
20,000 lbs sugar, Wm. Green & Sons, at 11 1/2c.
2,500 lbs star candles, Thos. Emery's Sons, at 32c.

STABLES AND HORSES BURNED.—Mr. Saffel, the stage contractor, had his stables and eleven horses burnt on Saturday night last at Nicholasville, Kentucky. A negro belonging to the neighborhood was the incendiary. He was arrested and taken to Lexington yesterday and placed in jail.

The passenger train on the Kentucky Central Railroad ran off the track yesterday morning, sixteen miles from Covington, by which accident the express messenger was hurt. The train did not arrive in Lexington until late yesterday afternoon. We did not learn the cause of the accident.

FIGHT AT WOODBURY.—A report was current in Nashville Tuesday night that Gen. Palmer's brigade of Federal troops had an engagement Monday at Woodbury with a heavy Confederate force, and won a decided victory. We did not hear who was in command of the rebels.

During the attack on the train near Lawrence, the rebels killed two of their own commissioned officers, who were prisoners on the cars, and wounded several rebel prisoners.

Six more blockade runners have been captured, viz: the Surprise, Two Brothers, John Williams, Orotoro, Florence Nightingale, and Brothers.

A young woman wearing soldiers' apparel, and belonging to the Fortunate Town regiment, shot herself in Cairo, on Sunday night, because her sex was discovered.

Bishop Rosecrans is on a visit to his brother, General Rosecrans, at Murfreesboro, and will be here on Monday.

Another lot of tobacco was shipped to the east yesterday.

HEADQUARTERS DEPARTMENT OF THE OHIO,

CINCINNATI, April 14, 1863.

Special Order, No. 1381.

Extract.

The Rev. E. Livingston Wells having this day taken the following oath of allegiance to the United States of America, has permission to return to the city of Louisville, Ky.:

I, E. Livingston Wells, of the city of Louisville, county of Jefferson, State of Kentucky, do solemnly swear that I will support, protect and defend the Constitution and Government of the United States against all enemies, whether foreign or domestic, and will bear true faith, allegiance and loyalty to the same, any ordinance, resolution or law of any State or Convention or Legislature to the contrary notwithstanding; and further, that I will well and faithfully perform all the duties which may be required of me by the laws of the United States. And I take this oath freely and voluntarily, without any mental reservation or evasion whatsoever, with a full and clear understanding that death or other punishment by the judgment of a Military Commission will be the penalty for the violation of this my solemn oath and parole of honor.

[Signed],

Edw. Livingston Wells.

Certificate.—The above oath was taken and signed before me this 14th day of April, 1863, Lewis Richmond,
Lieut. Col. & A. A. G.

Witnesses: CHAS. G. LAMAR, Lieut. Col. and Asst. Insp. General; R. H. J. Goddard, Capt., & A. D. C.

By command,
Maj. Gen. A. E. BURNSIDE.

Lewis Richmond,
Lieut. Col. & Asst. Adj. Genl.

Official: D. R. LAMAR, Capt. & Asst. Adj. Genl.

pay the highest prices, at my office, Third street, one door north of Green, next to the Capital Drugstore. apl6

TOILET COMPANIONS FOR THE LADIES.—As it is proper and natural for our lady friends to wish to make themselves as lovely as possible, we feel it our duty to indicate the best means for bringing about that much-desired consummation, and we can confidently assert that any one who uses BURNETT'S celebrated preparations, may obtain their object. Messrs. JOSEPH BURNETT & CO. are practical and scientific chemists, and have made their preparations—viz: Cosmetics, Kallidion, Florid and Oriental Tooth Wash—with strict reference to the human organization, in order that they may promote the general health. We are not in the habit of noticing most cosmetics, deeming them rather hurtful than otherwise, but we can cheerfully and cordially recommend these articles to all our readers.—(Leslie's Family Magazine.)

NEW DRY GOODS.

The newest and most desirable stock of ladie's dress goods for the spring and summer, and the best assortment of millinery goods are to be found at
G. B. TABBS,
Corner of Fourth and Market sts.

Notice.—Strangers visiting the city with view to purchasing goods will find it to their interest to give this house a call. mbl1 d&N

We consider that we confer a great favor on our readers when we call their attention to the elegant stock of men and boys' clothing at J. M. Armstrong's, on Main, opposite the National.

It is said that "a baby in a house is a well-wrapping of pleasure," but a lady who has had ample opportunity of testing the correctness of the observation, suggests that if the writer had applied the remark to a W. H. & W.
Wilson sewing machine instead of a baby he would have been nearer the truth, for those who have used the latter-saving machines all bear witness of the ever-enduring pleasure derived from them, being adapted to every kind of family sewing. Messrs. Sumner & No. 1 Masonic Temple, are offering them at last year's prices, and warrant every machine sold. You cannot, therefore, make a mistake in securing one of them.

Here is a good move: Messrs. Harney, Hughes & Co. announce my name as a candidate in the county of Bollitt for a seat in the next Legislature of Kentucky, with the declaration that I hope and trust no voter interested with Disunion or Abolition will attempt to record his vote for me, or in favor of my election.

CHARLES L. HARRISON.

Gentlemen, receiving perfectly-fitting shirts, can have them made to order from measurements of the body, materials, and warranted to fit, at Green & Green's, corner Main and Fourth. They do not send their orders East to be filled, but make them in their own rooms. While they do not pretend to sell goods at old prices, they are prepared to fill orders at Eastern prices.

Messrs. Green & Green make linen and flaxen underwear to order also.

Table mats, sea weed, oil cloth, and satin, also a full supply of feather dusters, just received at Sues' variety store.

MARRIED.

On Tuesday morning, April 14, at the residence of S. W. Jones, by Elder Wm. Jones, Josephus and Miss Olivia M. Jones, all of Jefferson county.

The ceremony was performed in the most simple and quiet manner, and the bride and groom were united in the most perfect manner. The bride was attended by her sister, Mrs.
J. M. Jones, and the groom by his brother, Mr. J. M. Jones. The ceremony was per-

HEADQUARTERS ARMY OF THE POTOMAC,

April 13.

Richmond papers of the 13th inst. have received, and we extract the following interesting news: The Whig says that a fight took place at Williamsburg on Saturday between the forces under General Wise and the Yankees. These reports are confirmed by passengers who arrived here last evening. At an early hour on that morning our troops drove in the Yankee pickets and occupied the town, the enemy retiring to Fort Magruder, from which point they commenced shelling the place. General Wise took a position near the college, and repelled to their fire.

Our casualties up to the 13th inst. were slight.

A cavalry movement had been ordered, the result of which had not been learned.

There is a rumor that we captured forty prisoners and burned a large quantity of commissary stores, but this is not touched for the Wilmington, North Carolina Journal,

Thursday evening, has reported that the town of Williamsburg was taken by our forces under General Hill the day previous, but the Journal doubts the correctness of the report.

The Kingston correspondent of the Raleigh

Journal reports that on the 10th instant the Yankees were falling back from Swift creek to Northern Neck.

The Richmond Whig has rumors of fighting for the past two or three days, on the Blackwater, but says they are not of a reliable character.

A report from Petersburg says the Yankees, in large force, entered Isle of Wight County on Wednesday, capturing four of our pickets, when they retired.

Private advices from Newbern to Sunday, 13th inst., state that the communication has been from Foster to the effect that he had plenty of supplies, and that he believed he could hold out for the force the rebels could bring against him for three weeks if necessary.

Goldboro, N. C., April 13.—The news of a partial victory over the Abolitionists at New bern reached here to-day. It appears that the Yankees, under Foster, were marching to the relief of Washington, now having been our troops, and were met and routed last Thursday evening, near Blad's creek, by Gen.

Foster.
